Making Our Communities Better Places

North & East Ayrshire

Tapend Food Larder

John Kelly commented "We are thrilled to be able to provide financial assistance to another meaningful service within the three towns and support local people through which is proving to be such hard times for many."

The Quaint Food Larder

John Kelly commented "We are delighted to be supporting another local food larder in the three towns and recognising the hard work and time that is contributed by volunteers to be able to deliver this facility. It is clearly a much needed and valuable service in the local community".

The Ayrshire Community Trust

John Kelly commented "We are thrilled to be able to provide financial assistance to help make the Volunteers Online Celebration happen. It is important to recognise the hard work so many volunteers do by supporting vital services such as the hospital transport, Foodbank and befriending programme and the many people who benefit from these services. Without the input of volunteers many services would not exist."

CUNNINGHAM HOUSING ASSOCIATION

TAPEND FOOD LARDER

In July 2022 Frank Sweeney, Group Chief Executive and John Kelly, then Chair of CHA presented a cheque for £1,000 to June McGuire, committee member of the Tapend Food Larder in Stevenston. The much needed service provides a crucial lifeline to families and individuals who are experiencing food poverty.

The funding provided by CHA helped the larder to replenish stock and assist with the week to week running costs.

THE QUAIN T LARDER

In July 2022 John Kelly, then Chair of CHA presented a cheque for £1,000 to Edna Campbell and Avril Toner, volunteers at The Quaint Larder in Ardrossan.

The funding provided by CHA assisted with purchasing food to stock up the larder as well as their day to day running costs.

THE AYRSHIRE COMMUNITY TRUST

In July 2022 John Kelly, then Chair of CHA presented a cheque for £500 to Kaileigh Brown, Executive Director of (TACT).

The funding provided by CHA assisted with the financial costs of running this year's Volunteers Online Celebration and helped provide 'goody bags' for all of the volunteers who work tirelessly throughout the year.

Making Our Communities Better Places Dumfries & Galloway

Mossburn Community Farm

Frank Sweeney commented "Mossburn Community Farm is quite clearly a vital resource for many in the local community as well as a safe and secure place for animals that are looked after there."

Lochmaben Tennis Club

Frank Sweeney commented "We are delighted to be supporting Lochmaben Tennis Club with the financial costs involved to help make it a safe and enjoyable environment for all members and visitors whilst encouraging people to take part in such an active sport."

Dumfries Y Gymnastics Club

Frank Sweeney commented "Cunninghame Housing Association are delighted to be supporting Dumfries Y Gymnastics Club setting up their new facility in Annan, providing local people with the opportunity to keep fit, improve their confidence by socialising with others as well as possible job prospects for the future".

MOSSBURN COMMUNITY FARM

In May 2022 Alan Somerville, Senior Development Officer of CHA presented a cheque for £1,000 to Siobhan Webster, Yard Manager of Mossburn Community Farm. The farm is primarily an animal sanctuary however also provides an Animal Assisted Therapy (AAT) programme for local people with learning, behavioural or emotional challenges.

The funding provided by CHA assisted with the all-important running costs of the farm to provide food for the animals, bedding, vet bills amongst much more.

LOCHMABEN TENNIS CLUB

In May 2022 Alan Somerville, Senior Development Officer of CHA presented a cheque for £1,000 to Deborah Bodel and Tracey Green of Lochmaben Tennis Club.

The funding provided by CHA assisted with the costs involved of carrying out resurfacing repairs to the facility ensuring it is safe and accessible for everyone who uses it.

DUMFRIES Y GYMNASTICS CLUB

In May 2022 Alan Somerville, Senior Development Officer of CHA presented a cheque for £1,000 to Niamh Kerr and Alisha McKinnel, Coaches of the Dumfries Y Gymnastics Club, along with some young members.

Given the success and popularity of the Club, they have now secured new premises in the Silverlaw Estate in Annan. The funding provided by CHA assisted with the set-up costs of the new premises.

DEVELOPMENT - NEW BUILD

In October 2022, Councillor Archie Dryburgh MBE, Chair of Communities Committee and Dumfries & Galloway's Armed Forces Champion carried out the official closing ceremony to mark the completion of Cunninghame Housing Association's new build development at Hallmeadow, Annan.

CHA's Board of Management, Frank Sweeney Group CEO, Councillor Archie Dryburgh MBE and invited guests gathered to celebrate the occasion at Hallmeadow in Annan.

Councillor Dryburgh MBE, Chair of Communities Committee and Dumfries & Galloway's Armed Forces Champion said, "I would like to thank Cunninghame Housing Association. They have shown their commitment to supporting Council objectives, through this development in Annan and across the region, through the provision of much needed affordable housing. I look forward to seeing more developments like this come forward".

The site delivered a total of 130 new build homes for rent comprising of a mixture of two and three bedroom houses as well as 8 bungalows designed for amenity use and 5 wheelchair designed bungalows.

The project was delivered by Cunninghame Housing Association with the support of the Scottish Government and Dumfries & Galloway Council.
